Where will I study and Course Content

The programme is predominately based within professional outdoor centres giving our learners a unique, bespoke and alternative learning experience within the sport and adventure industry.

Our learners will be based in the Marine Activities Centre (Sunderland) and professional outdoor sports centres, Simonside Outdoor Adventure (South Shields) and Adventure Sunderland (Roker). As this course is heavily practical, learners will also train and take part in activities in places such as Kielder Forest, the Lake District and Yorkshire.

Learners will have the opportunity to work towards GCSE maths and English (if required) and take part in enrichment activities, sports and extra qualifications. We will support students, offering assistance with studies, finance, careers guidance, preparing UCAS applications and a range of other services. It is important we ensure our learners make the most of their time with us and achieve their full potential.
